JUDGE SWEARS IN NEW COURT APPOINTED SPECIAL ADVOCATES

Kane County: – Judge Clint Hull presided over the swearing in of sixteen new Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) volunteers. These individuals completed a 40-hour training program in order to be sworn in to represent the best interests of children whose cases are in Abuse & Neglect Court.

If you would like to become an advocate for children, please call the CASA Kane County office at (630) 232-4484 or visit www.casakanecounty.org to view a schedule of upcoming general information meetings in November and December. Training will begin again in January.

CASA Kane County is a nonprofit organization that recruits, trains and manages community volunteers to advocate for the best interests of abused and neglected children. For more information, visit www.casakanecounty.org.
