

August 29, 2011

p. 1/2

For Immediate Release
Contact: Sam Entile, 630-906-3108

Old Second Bank Hires Several Officers/VPs

Jerry Rasnak of Hinsdale was named 1st Vice President and Controller for Old Second Bank. He will manage the bank's accounting cycle, file timely reports of the FDIC/SEC and Board of Directors, direct annual profit plans, and contribute to the area of liquidity and assets.

Previously, Rasnak was senior vice president and controller at Charter National Bank. Prior to that, he served as managing director and controller at PrivateBank and Trust Company. He earned a bachelor of science in business administration and MBA in Accounting & Finance from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Robin Hill of Hinckley was named vice president of commercial lending for Old Second, working out of the St. Charles office. She will manage commercial banking relationships, and foster new business development of lending and deposit products for commercial clients.

Previously, Hill was managing director, commercial relationship manager with The PrivateBank and Trust Company and has over 20 years of experience in the banking industry. She is currently treasurer of the Zonta Club of St. Charles-Geneva-Batavia and Zonta West – Illinois. She is also past-president of the St. Charles Chamber's Women's Business Council and treasurer of the Mid Valley Neighborhood Improvement Association.

Brian Schluntz of Aurora was named 1st vice president-information technology at Old Second Bank. He is the senior IT manager, overseeing infrastructure and aligning IT with the overall business strategy of the bank.

Previously, Schluntz was vice president-information technology with TCF Bank – Lakeshore Region and IT manager with Merchants Bank. He earned a bachelor's degree in finance from Northern Illinois University and an associate's degree in business from Waubensee Community College.

Schluntz also serves on the dinner committee for the Marklund Top Hat Ball and on the Information Technology Council with Valley Industrial Association.

Mary Randel of Aurora was named Employee Benefits Trust Officer in Old Second Bank's Wealth Management group. She is responsible for consultation and assisting clients on qualified plan designs, compliance and investments.

Prior to joining Old Second, Randel was senior client relationship and development manager with Transamerica Retirement Services.

Ted Koch of Sugar Grove was named vice president with Old Second Bank's commercial group, operating out of the Elgin Office (1000 S. McLean Blvd.). He will be responsible for procuring new business banking development in Old Second's northern market.

Koch has been in the banking industry for 15 years, most recently serving as regional vice president of commercial banking at Illinois State Bank. He is also involved in a variety of community organizations including trustee of the Sugar Grove Police Pension Fund, baseball coach in the Sugar Grove Park District, member of the Creve Coeur Club of Peoria, member of the German-American Central Society, and member of the Sugar Grove Sons of the American Legion. He earned a bachelor of science degree at Illinois State University.

Old Second Bancorp (NASDAQ Symbol "OSBC") is the holding company for Old Second National Bank. Old Second Financial Inc. is also a subsidiary of Old Second Bancorp. The Bancorp operates over 25 facilities within Kane, Kendall, DuPage, DeKalb, LaSalle, Will, and Cook counties.

#####