

Shaw Media + Kane County Chronicle

Shaw Media, which owns and publishes the Kane County Chronicle, is proud to be the third oldest, continuously owned and operated family media company in the nation. Our legacy of success dates back 168 years. That track record exists because of a talented group of over 300 employees who put their very best into a family of award-winning print and online publications across Illinois and Iowa. Our success continues.

We are excited about the launch of BEST OF THE FOX.com, celebrating all that's great about living in the Fox River Valley! From the Tri-Cities down to Oswego and Yorkville, and up the Fox to Algonquin, McHenry, and Fox River Grove, it's everything you need to fill your calendar with fun activities for family and friends – events, festivals, concerts, reviews, new restaurants, shopping– and as always, great local deals. Life is great along the Fox! Visit www.bestofthefox.com to find out more.

This summer, we also launched FRIDAY NIGHT DRIVE, a single online outlet for high quality, in-depth high school football coverage of more than 100 teams in Illinois. Find features, analysis, recruitment news, brackets, schedules, stats, rankings and more. Every day our award-winning writers, photographers and editors give our subscribers coverage of the teams, players and issues they care about in high school football, all in one place. Visit www.fridaynightdrive.com to follow your favorite teams throughout the season.

Knowledge is power, so join us and enjoy access to all there is to know about life in our communities. Locally-written unbiased reports, breaking news, the best of local events and comprehensive coverage of prep sports. It's information you can count on, from the Kane County Chronicle and Shaw Media.
